Mayor Stielow called the meeting to order at 6:00 p.m.

City Administrator Eric Berlin gave an overview of the Operations portion of the FY 2020-2021 Proposed Budget. Parks Director Kelli Votypka and Library Director Vickie Lewis reviewed their budgets with the Council. Discussion ensued. The following changes were indicated by Council to the Proposed Budget:

- Amend the General Fund to add $5,000 to the Buildings and Grounds budget in the Public Spaces Maintenance line item. This is to fund the repair of the monument structures on 23rd Avenue

Proposed Budget -- Operations

and Iron Street.

- Amend the Water Fund to deduct $94,500 from the Professional Services line item. This is the amount of what was proposed as a contract for performing locates of fiber lines. The idea will be brought to the City Council at a future time.
- Amend the Water Pollution Control Budget to deduct $9,500 for the Lab Water Filtration System capital project. This project was included in error for the FY 2021 Budget, as it was accomplished in FY 2020.

Mayor Stielow declared the meeting adjourned at 7:51 PM.
